All through the years

We have a guide.

A hope, a light which in us does abide.

To thee we sing, Alma Mater, Alma Mater, dear.

With thee shared our joys, shared our tears.

To thee we pledge our loyalty,

Our hearts so true to thy loved memory.

O Pius X, in your steps we strive to follow

Through the paths of life's own morrow.

Our dear Alma Mater still will stand

To guide the way

Though others may stray,

Pius X show us the way.

His Eminence,
JAMES FRANCIS CARDINAL McINTYRE, D.D., L.D.
Archbishop of Los Angeles

To the Graduates of PIUS X HIGH SCHOOL

My dear Graduates:

As the graduates of Pius X High School will soon again register their impressions on higher education, the business world, or home life, we extend to them our heartfelt and sincere congratulations.

It is our prayer that God's blessings will be most bountiful upon them, and that the treasury of graces that has come to them at the inspiration of their teachers, will ever fruitfully grow.

Praying for you all blessings, I am Faithfully in Christ,
J. Francis Cardinal McIntyre
Archbishop of Los Angeles

The Most Reverend
TIMOTHY MANNING, DD., J.C.D.
Auxiliary Bishop, Vicar-General and Chancellor

Dedication

This annual is dedicated to a dedicated man. His cheerful and optimistic outlook on life is a boon to the morale and to the spirit of the school. He is never at a loss for words whether kidding the students or reprimanding them. His are words that lift the spirit or make one realize his mistake.

Although small in stature he is big of heart and works. When you see his bouncy strut you cannot help smiling and saying a cheerful "Good morning, Father Cranham!"

P rincipal's Message

Dear Students of Pius X:

The pride that each royal member of our school feels in reviewing the accomplishments of the past, and particularly this year, is a pardonable one. The fast growth of the school, the quick spread of its buildings, the phenomenal success of its graduates have swelled the breasts of all who have participated in the development of Pius X.

This pride is tempered by the consideration that all that has been done was the work of God, under whose guidance His Eminence, Cardinal McIntyre, was inspired to build the largest Catholic high school in the western United States. The dedication of personnel to the goal of Saint Pius X, "to restore all things in Christ," has received its greatest impetus from the blessing of our Cardinal-Archbishop, indicated in his constant fatherly guidance.

We must be true to this manifest trust placed in us. We must all make Pius X High School an outstanding school in every respect, where Christlike virtues are learned to an exceptional degree,—not only learned, but practiced to such an extent that every Pius X student will personally reflect the nobility of a follower of Christ.

May almighty God favor us with the grace so to do.

Sincerely your friend,

Father Joseph F. Sharpe

In September 1954, a new freshman class entered the halls of Pius X. With some fear and trepidation, and with great anticipation this class began its high school life. With high hopes for success in scholastic learning, recognition in the field of sports, and achievement in striving to live together as a group, this class has united and has proven that group cooperation is the best way to advance and to achieve its goal.

To the class of '58 comes the climax of four years of struggles and aspirations — graduation! Reminiscences of the past bring forth many delightful memories, and make us feel that we can be justly proud of our achievements.

Before we write "finis", the Class of '58 finds the record incomplete without some mention of the inspiration and guiding companionship of our Principal, Father Sharpe, and of our fine faculty to whom the class owes much for their kindly interest and encouragement. Because of such ideal contacts, we hope to be, as a class, a little better, and as individuals, a little finer. If we have accomplished this our aim has been fulfilled; if we have accomplished our aim, we are content.

Gloria
 Well kid almost another year is at end and we're still friends (that's almost impossible). Wow shorty we've really been through some twisted classes & teachers. This year a we've had lots of fun outside of school. (heh, heh)
 Kid I hope we're even better pals next year (will you marry me). Good Luck with everything you do (especially Joe) and God Bless you

JUNIORS

As with so many things, living up to what is expected of one is often harder than one anticipated. So it is with the Junior Class. Living up to the example set before them by the Class of '58 and matching, at least in a small way, their successful record was not easy. They were not perfect nor did they possess the "Midas touch" that seemed to overshadow every Senior endeavor. Although they were thought to be a social-minded class, the Juniors, by sweat and hard work, have given Pius X a chance to raise her head in the Catholic Leagues and has given her a "button poppin'" opportunity to take pride in the many awards and honors that they have brought home to their Alma Mater. The Junior Class has proven itself to be intensely human: disagreeing often, failing many times, but most important, picking up their pride again and again and learning from their mistakes by becoming more closely knit as a class.

We the sophomore class are proud to be a part of the student body of Pius X. In the past year many a sophomore has played an important role in the everyday drama of school life, both in the classroom and on the athletic field. However, we feel that this contribution is hardly worthy of note in contrast to the priceless gift we have received. Our principal has inspired us, our faculty has guided us, and the student body has made us aware of our responsibility of becoming intelligent Catholic men and women. We feel that in this year many factors which go into school life have converged upon us and left a definite impression upon us. It is this impression, this priceless gift that we would like to acknowledge. Its value is judged not by an individual, not by a class, but by a school dedicated "To restore all things in Christ."

FRESHMEN

We, the Freshman Class of Pius X High School, look back with mixed emotions to that big day just a few short months ago — our first day in high school! How surprisingly big the school looked and how very small and unimportant we felt in such strange surroundings. The important-looking Sophomores and the lordly Juniors bowed low when the mighty Seniors passed by. And we, as we gazed upon them, were awed by their intelligence and dignity. All too soon the year is coming to an end, but we will long remember and cherish the many memories of our freshman high school days.

Not only did Jim Hardy teach us how to be good football players, but he also taught us how to be gentlemen. He is a man whose example of life is an ideal representation of true Catholic Action. His youthful confidence rubs off on the team and his wise experience guides their efforts. But he is not a cold, far-off source of inspiration, never fully understood by his players. On the contrary, he is a warm, vibrant, compassionate human being. He is your friend on or off the field. There isn't a thing he would not do for anyone on the team, star or sub. He is a coach who will "lower" himself to joke with his players, but on the other hand, is stern when the necessity arises. In other words, he is all the good things that are humanly possible in a coach and we hate to see him leave.

Coach Hardy was not the only source of inspiration for the team. Wally Nowicki, our line coach, is one of the most dedicated men on the Pius X coaching staff. All fear the Nowicki "paddle" but all appreciate the hard work and fine example of Mr. Nowicki.

Our warriors fought their way from the royalty of homecoming

J. Galyen prepares to latch on to a pass against hopeless Cathedral man.

J. Quartucci receives last-minute instructions from coaches Jim Hardy and Wally Norwicki.

As J. Galyen lays out two men, H.B., T. Lanza readies to spring loose for a long gain.

1) In tense anticipation, the homecoming queen candidates: J. Ramelot, B. Pharis, G. Behm, N. Meagher and J. Willenbring await the selection of queen.

Graciously, B. Pharis reigns as homecoming queen of 1957.

- 2) At last!!!
- 3) Joni Johnson, queen of '56, crowns her successor.

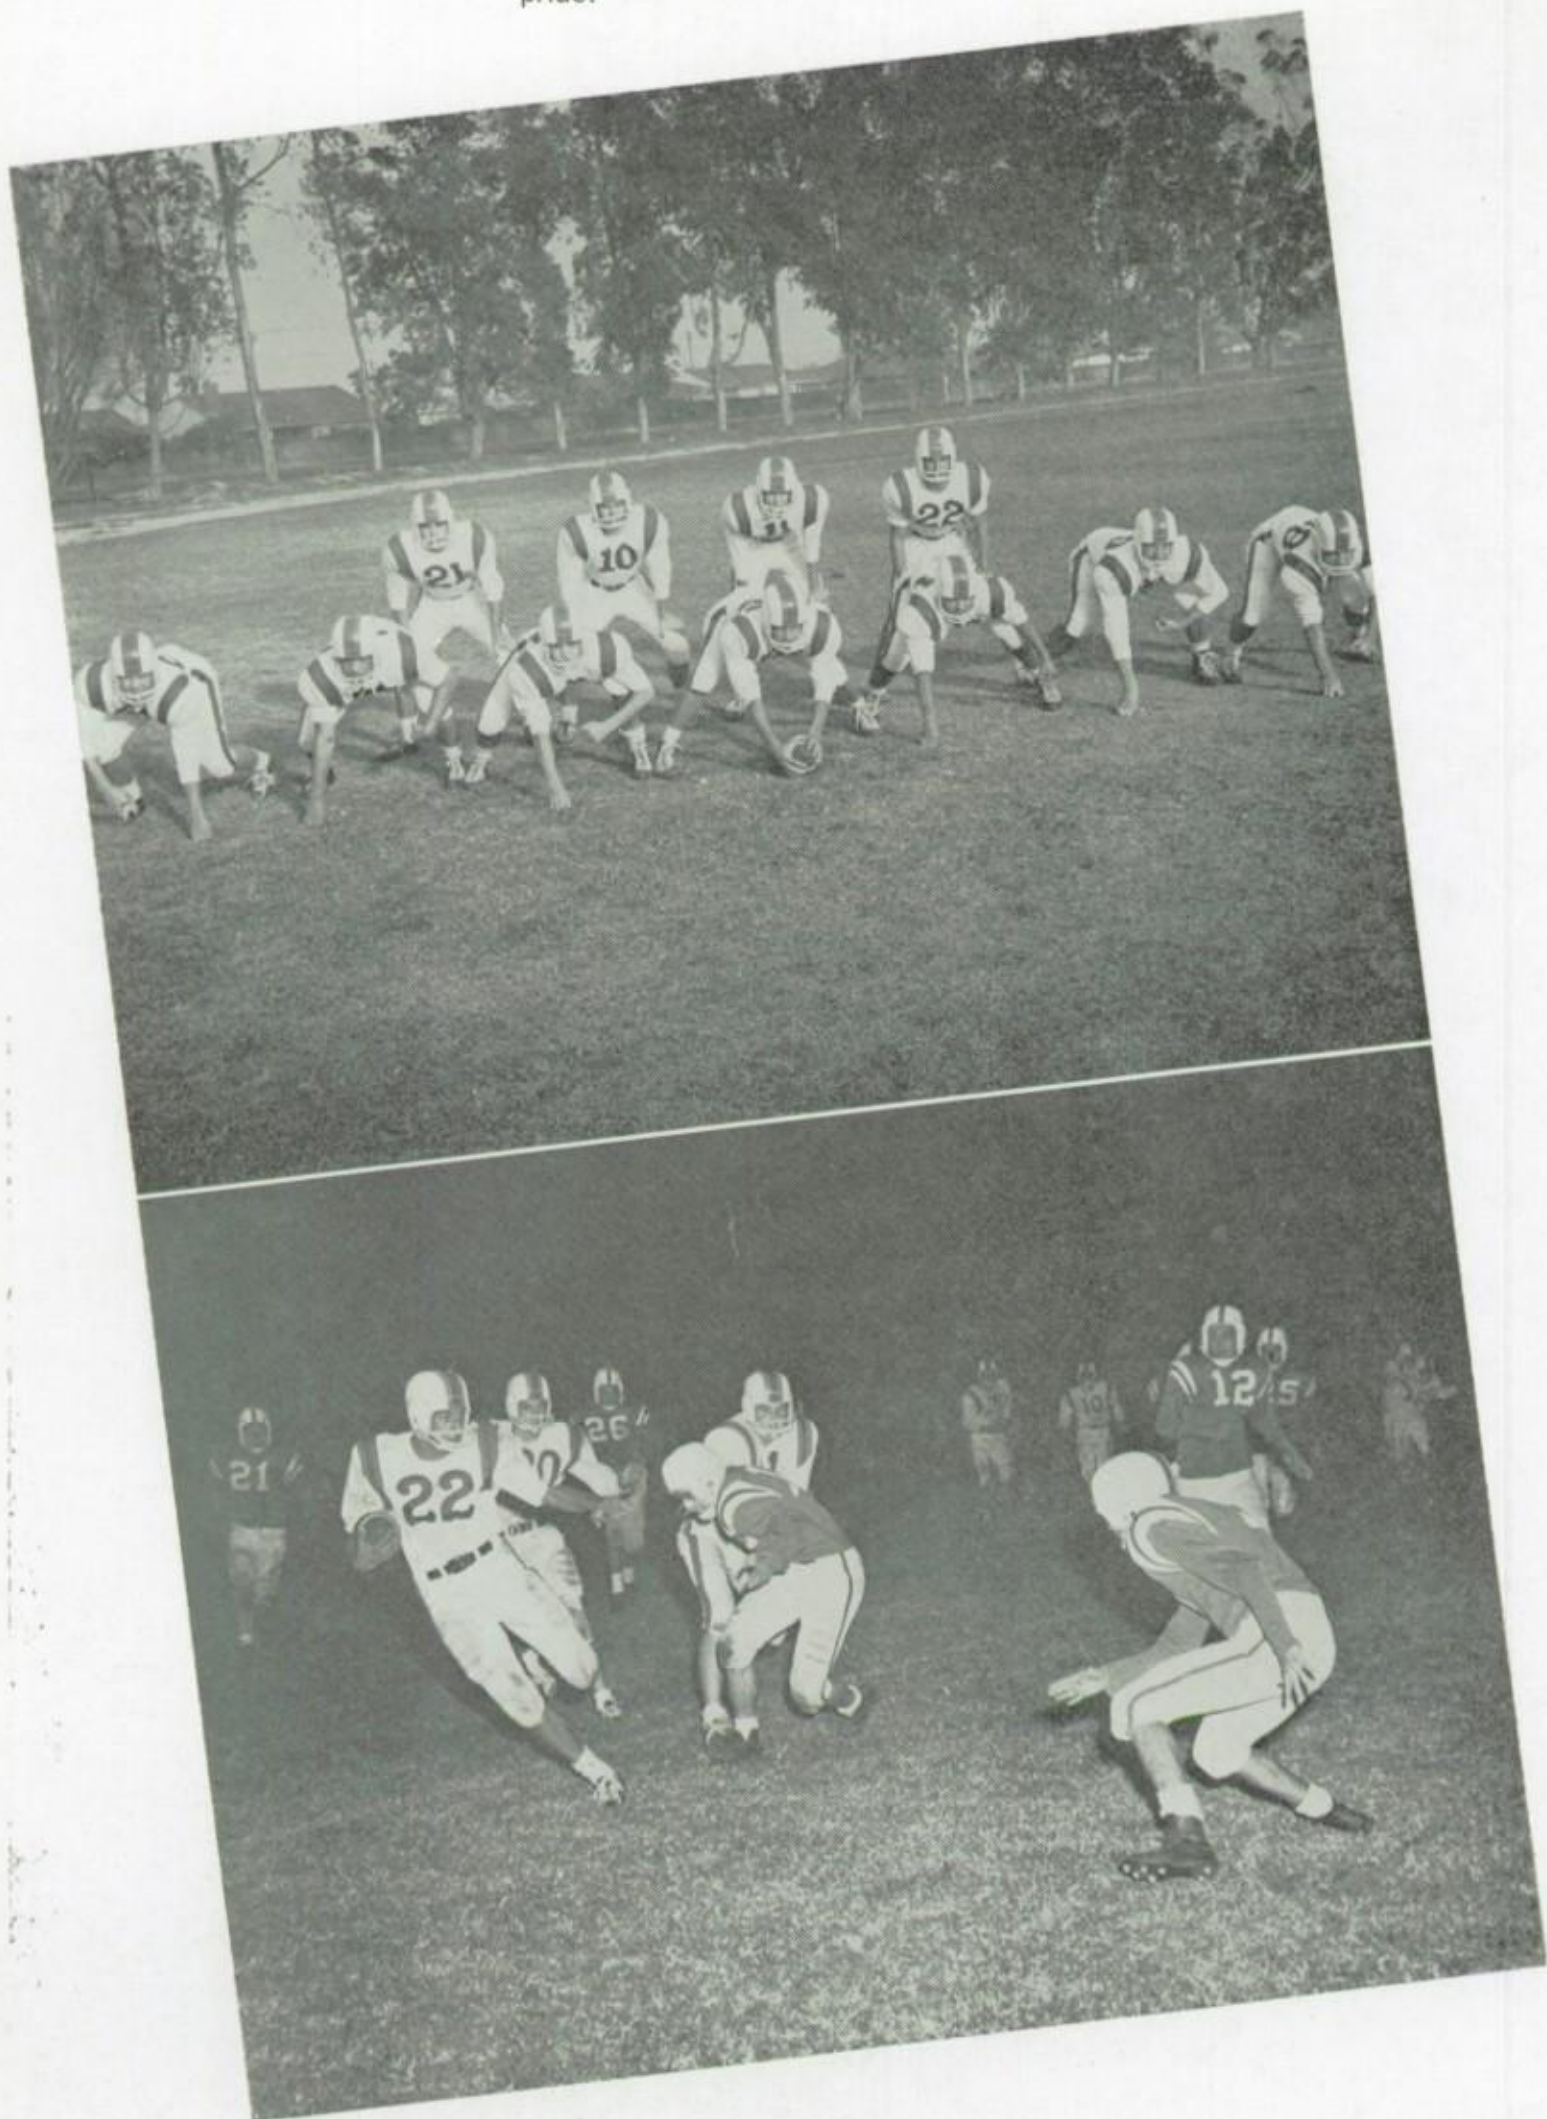

T. Lanza is touched by a Carmel Crusader as he goes for a 40-yard gain.

N. Murphy throws a block as T. Lanza rolls out yardage at Loyola.

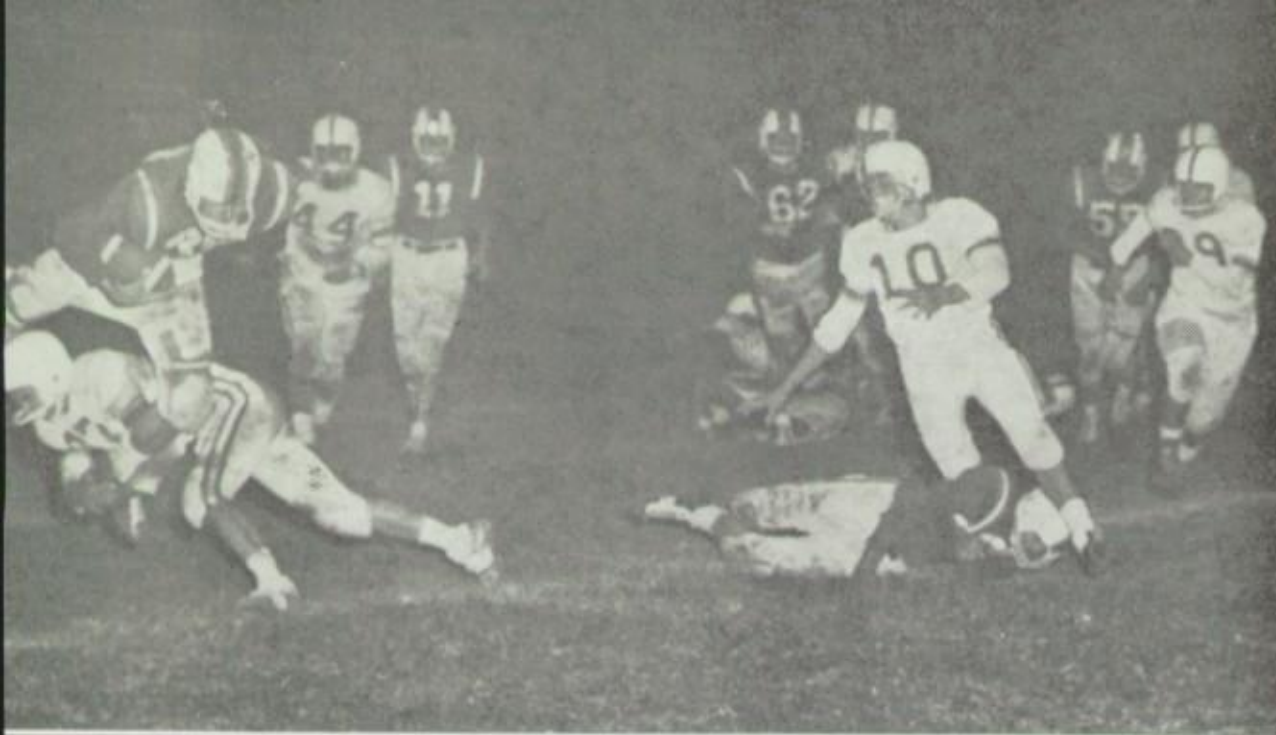

The fighting Warrior varsity, Pius X's pride!

N. Murphy gives a mean look as T. Lanza sprints for a gain.

To the struggle and tears

H. B. Lanza proves coach's theory; if you can't go through, then go over; Tom goes over.

D. Dorkowski proves his strength against Mount Carmel.

of sometimes rewardless games

T. Lanza is stopped after a gain against Loyola.

Coach Hardy points out to N. Murphy what strategy to use in the game.

What seemed to be a good break is quickly being checked.

Our Basketball Team

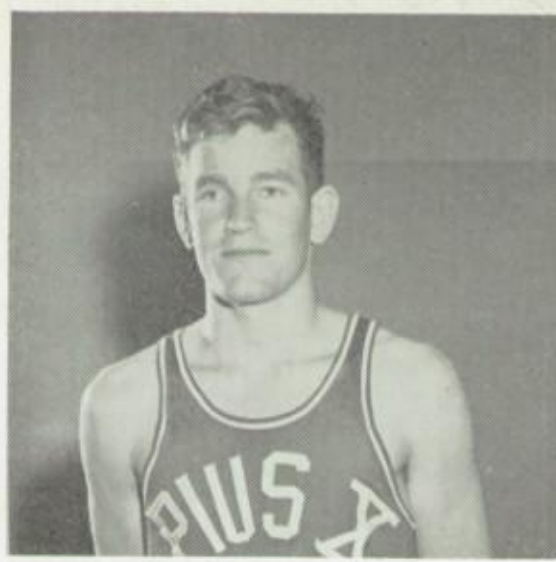

Though the season was not as rewarding as had been anticipated, our hoopsters, under the coaching of Mr. J. O'Connor, were never lacking the support of the student body. The highlight of the season was the exciting varsity vs. faculty game.

Below, G. Johnson, a surprisingly able frosh, leaps with a Carmel forward, his team and ours, waiting tensely for the ball.

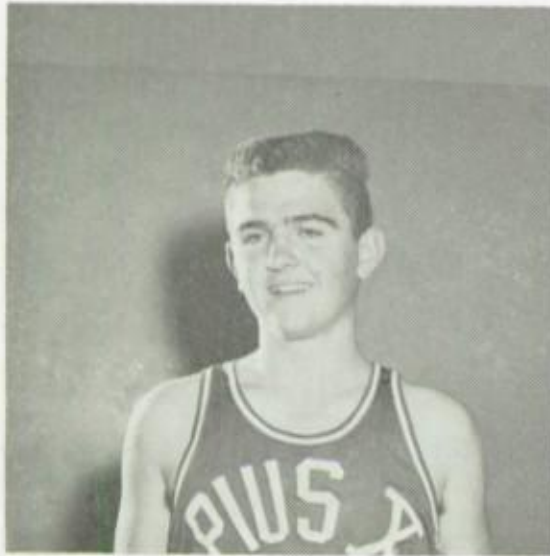

Jim Bliss, Forward

Ron Sherratt, Forward

Steve Mathews, Guard

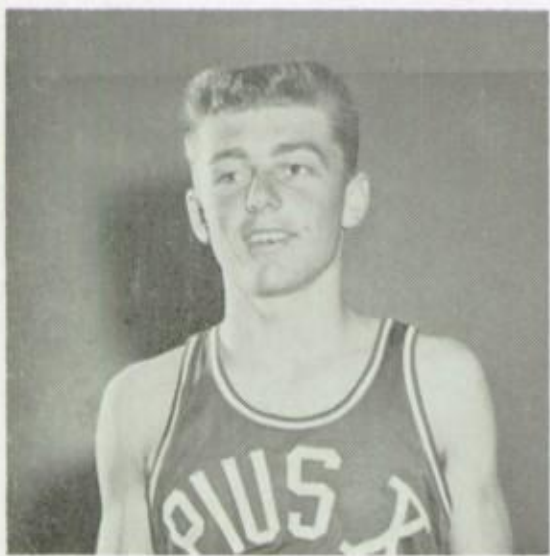

Bob Tritz, Guard

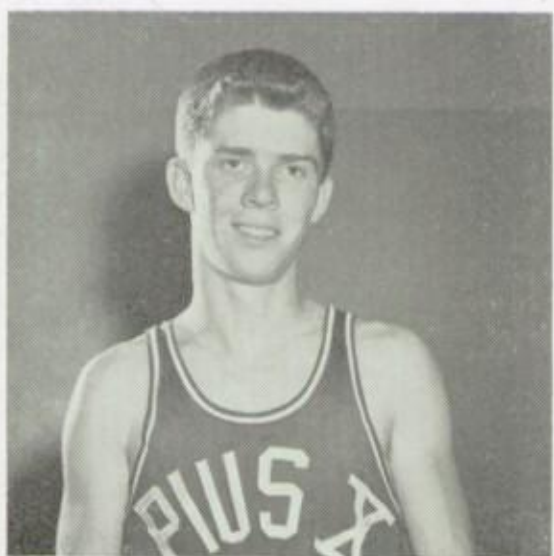

Mike Olivas, Guard

Dennis Carroll, Forward

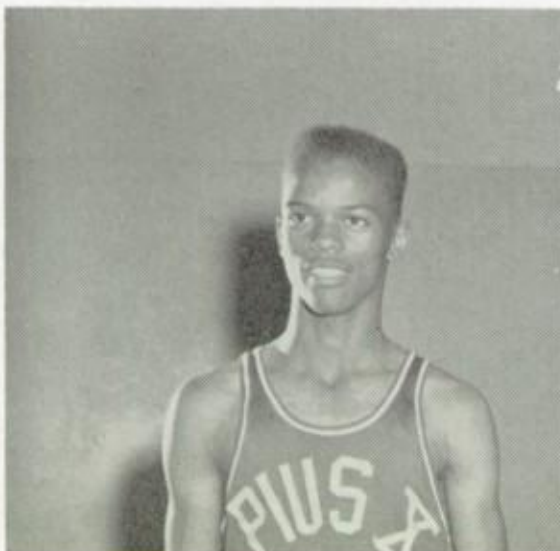

Tom McDonald, Guard

Bob Gosnell, Guard

Tom Lanza, Guard

Gene Johnson, Guard

Joe Olquin, Manager

This is the all important basket, especially to C. Frahm as he strains for those two points.

D. Carroll makes his try as the Carmel men cavort beneath him.

The clock behind T. MacDonald says 9:07 but the clock at the opposite end of the gym reads "two more points" as this Warrior scores again.

Brought the best within us - - -

The excitement that is reflected in the faces of the players pulsates through the entire gym as G. Johnson gives his all to reach that ball.

R. Sheratt's height was not only an asset but a necessity as he leaps for a rebound in this Crusader game.

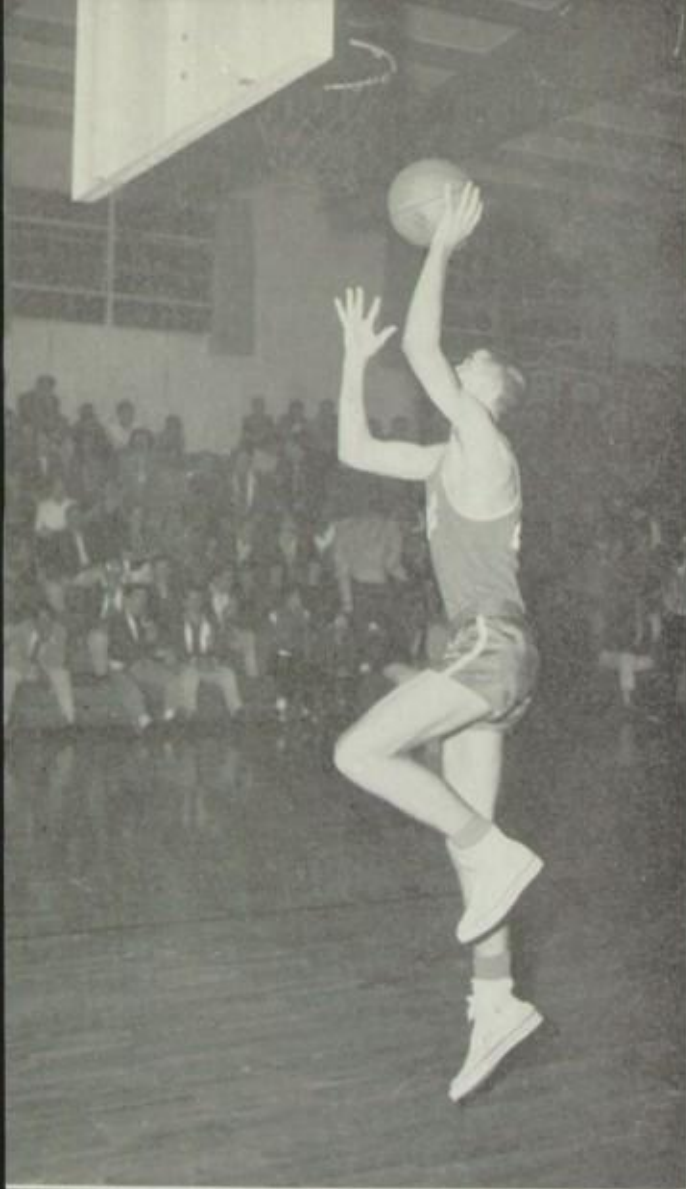

T. Macdonald has an easy lay-in.
D. Carroll gives moral support.

Dennis Carroll heads for the basket, hopefully.

J. McCord is out in the open as he scores two against Serra. (Upper left.)

Pius has no secrets. (Upper right.)

Our baseball team slugged its way into the season with six consecutive wins. Here Mr. Dykes and Father Zimmerman confer on the problem at hand with pitchers F. Hughes and D. Shields. Judging by the look on Fr. Zimmerman's face, the problem is already solved.

Armed with dedicated coaches and a will to win.

Do we judge the score by Fr. Zimmerman (extreme left) or Coach Dykes (extreme right)?

Things are looking up.

Hughes pitches a strike as T. McDonald is ready at short stop.

(Upper left) G. Marcyan waits for a pitch from the Notre Dame hurler.

M. Olivas bangs one far into enemy territory.

T. MacDonald slides safely into third.

This is good baseball ballet!

Cross Country

T. Cornish, D. Luebbers, P. Griggers, and T. Webster show the stride that put over their wonderful record.

The fall of 1957 witnessed the introduction of Cross Country to the Pius X sports program. Participating in the Catholic League for the first time the Pius X varsity team found the going rather rough. Led by Captain Porter Griggs the team improved consistently during the season. The highlight of the varsity season was finishing third in the Compton invitational meet. The Junior Varsity team was in contention for the championship until close losses to Cathedral and Loyola. However twelve foes fell before the determined running of the team, including St. Anthony's, Cantwell, Notre Dame, Norwalk, and others. A freshman team was nosed out of first place in the Mount San Antonio Invitational Meet by Artesia 45 to 48. Individually the season was successful with Don Luebbers winning the Mt. San Antonio race over 90 others. Tom Kornish was second and Pat Bowen sixth in the same race. Tom Kornish won first in the Junior Varsity race at the Compton Invitational. Jim Webster took third. Kornish also won the semi-finals in the JV's for the CIF. Both Kornish and Luebbers were the only qualifiers in this race from Catholic High Schools, as well as the only under-classmen, running against seniors and juniors from all the CIF. A. Aragon, D. Becker, J. Cluck, T. Golds, J. Olguin, D. Borkowski and R. Taylor made up the varsity. P. Bowen, S. Jorgensen, H. Hefner, J. Castillo, J. Harris, D. Pieczorka, D. Porter, and A. Reynolds completed the JV's.

The 1958 track season was one characterized by steady improvement both by the teams, and by the individuals. With an eye to the future Coach Wally Nowicki stressed a sound building program. The success of the program was immediately evident in the undefeated season of the Cee track team, which numbers among their 11 victories, St. Anthony's, Loyola, Mt. Carmel, Cantwell, Mission, Paramount and others. The Bee's also had a good season including wins over Mission, St. Anthony's, Loyola, Mt. Carmel, and Paramount. The varsity scored their initial Catholic league victory by defeating Cantwell. They also defeated Mission, Paramount, and lost close decisions to Mt. Carmel and Dominguez. The most consistent point getters were the hurdles by Gary Patterson who set a new school record of 15.3 and 20.1. Robert Taylor set a Cee record of 14.0.

Coach Richard O'Connor working with the sprinters developed Leroy Mathis into a school record holder for the 180 yard dash—time 20.1. Coach Tom O'Leary handled the field events. John Galyen set a Cee shot put record at 44'10". Robert Taylor also set a new Cee school record of 5'7" in the high jump.

Each winter the conflict between the student body and the faculty is brought to a climax on the basketball court, when the faculty meets the varsity. The seriousness of this annual event is reflected in the portentous expressions on the faces of the varsity. The score turned out to be 58-54 in favor of the faculty.

The Girls Athletic Association has had another successful year. It has sponsored many of our most enjoyable activities such as parties, picnics, grammar school tournaments, parades, and cake sales. The purpose of the G . A. A. is to develop physical efficiency, to encourage an interest in athletic activities, to promote sportsmanship and a spirit of co-operation and fellowship. Reviewing the past years of this worthwhile organization it has proven to be not only successful but helpful to the girls at Pius X School.

One of our most enjoyable activities—a game in the St Anthony's Tournament.

The new perpetual trophy for the grammar school basketball tournament, sponsored by the G.A.A., was won this year by St. Odelia's.

The Majorettes are a comparatively new group organized at Pius this year. Their captain, Pat Rodden, has worked very hard with them for their various performances.

J. Janssen, J. Bressano, P. Caldero, and Mrs. LeFebvre were on hand to make refreshments available to those who attended the grammar school tournament.

As citizens of two worlds, we at Pius X are fortunate in having the following theologians (seated l to r): Fr. Williams, Fr. Duffy, Msgr. Kerner, Fr. Edelenyi; (standing): Fr. Moreno, Fr. Weaver, Fr. Hughes, and Fr. Zimmerman prepare us to live and to defend our Catholic Heritage.

Father Weaver instructs senior girls in the logical defense of their faith.

"Here is the land where Jesus was born," Msgr. Kerner points out to his Freshmen I girls' religion class.

E n g l i s h

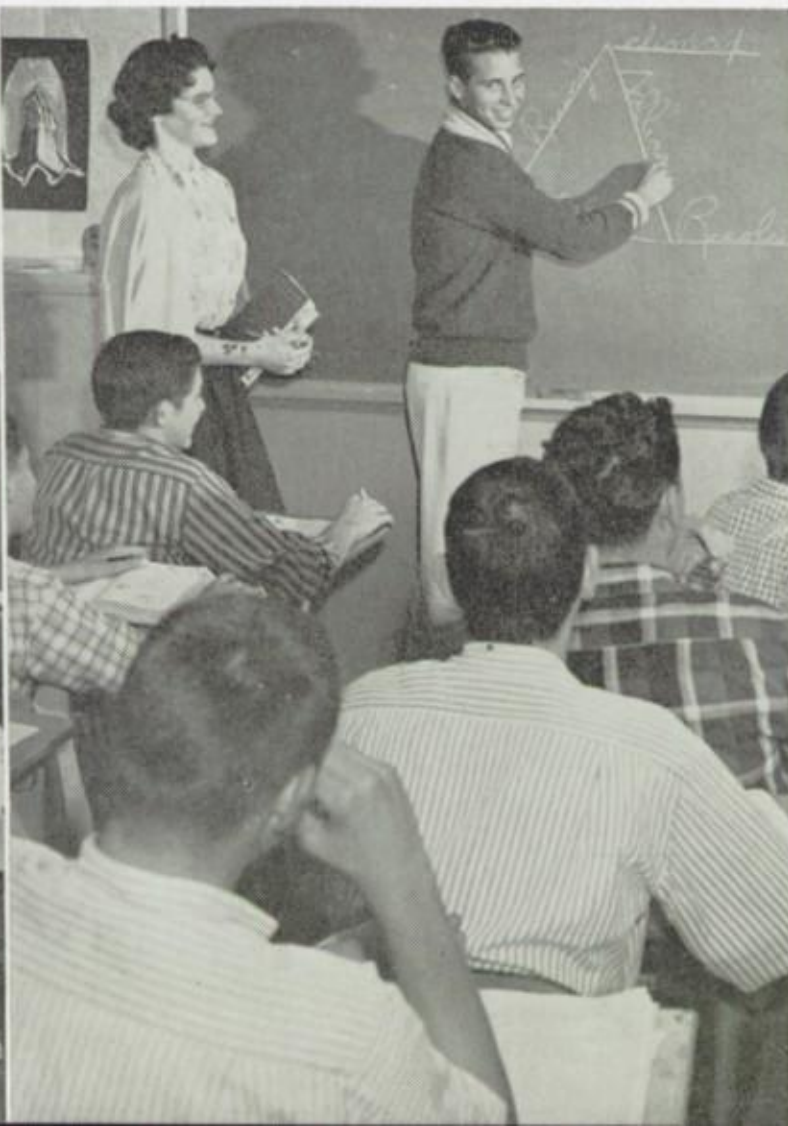

Because English is basic to all other subjects, our teachers (seated l to r) Sr. Denis, Sr. Loraine, Sr. Annemarie, Sr. Marie Cecelia, Sr. Marie Christine, Mr. Meyer; (standing): Sr. Hostia, Sr. Paulette, Sr. J. Berchmans, Miss Brady and Mr. Woods impart it diligently in all its various forms and phases.

Sr. Marie Christine and some of the senior girls leave the study of English Literature long enough to pose for our photographer.

Miss Brady feels confident that C. Frahm knows the makings of a short story as he points out various points to the English I class.

H i s t o r y

Mr. R. O'Connor points out to his History I class the state of Nebraska.

We are greatly indebted to our history teachers. With the expert guidance of (seated l-r) Sr. Maria Cecelia, Sr. Emilene, Sr. Philip, Fr. Daly, (standing l-r) Sr. Hostia, Sr. Loraine, Mr. O'Connor, Miss Brady, and Fr. Parnassus we learn more and more about the realm of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Fr. Parnassus instructs his senior boys in the principles contained in the Bill of Rights.

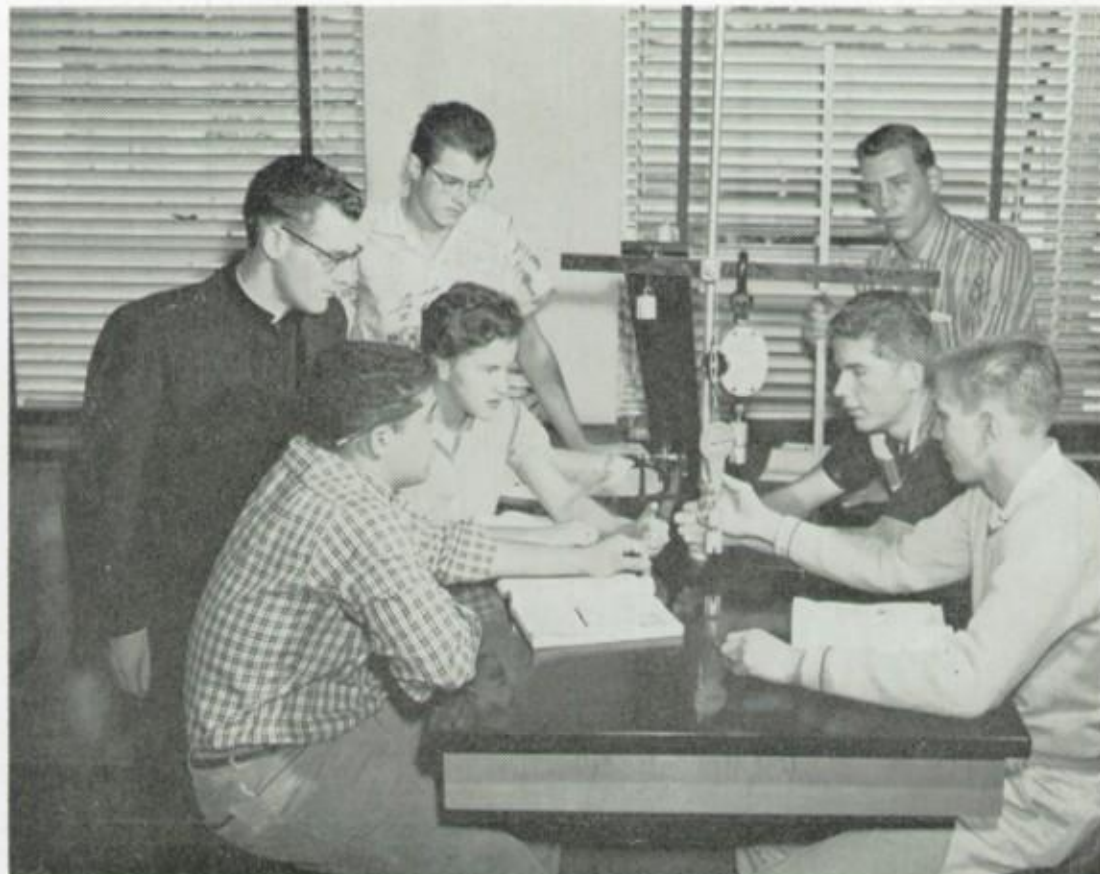

A lively debate is in progress in the House of Representatives in Sr. Hostia's Civics class. Resolved: Foreign aid should be administered through the U.N.

A meeting of the United Nations is being held and P. Rodden, representing England, expresses its views on economic aid to Middle Eastern countries.

Physical Sciences

These budding physicists determine the advantages of the inclined plane, under the careful direction of Fr. Delaney.

Mr. O'Connor looks pleased with the progress of his General Science class as P. Stock, L. Harvey, J. Boles demonstrate how electricity will flow from one metal to another.

Liberating oxygen is just one of the fascinating experiments conducted by Sr. Bartholomew's chemistry class.

Sr. Gertrude Joseph, the head of the language department, amuses latin scholars with such terms as Sator and Arepo!

Fr. Zimmerman supervises the silent reading of Caesar, in his Latin II class. "Gallia est omnis divisa in partes tres!"

Shirley Brown proudly informs Sr. John Berchmans, "Voici la France."

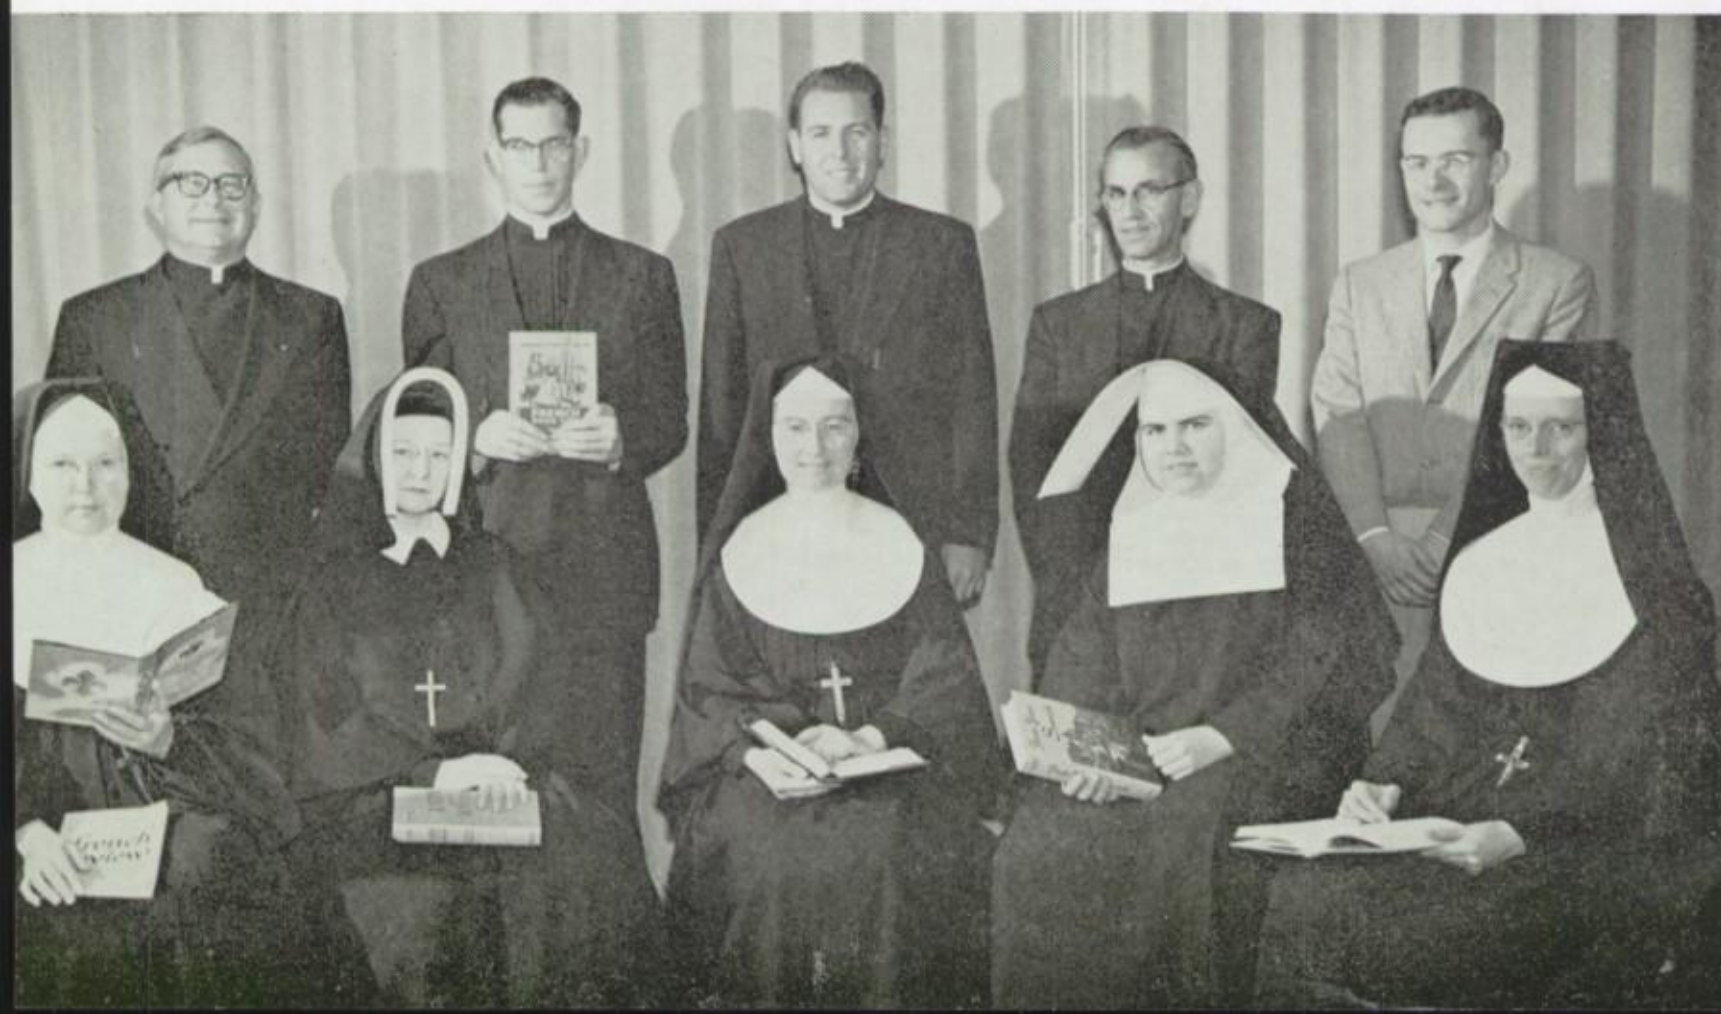

Sr. Claude's Spanish III students, K. Bauerly, G. Watson, B. Lupo, J. Hersey learn how to punctuate in Spanish.

J. Quartucci traces the epic tradition in Sr. Gertrude Joseph's Latin IV class, with special emphasis on the Aeneid, of course.

Members of the language department are: (seated, l to r) Sr. John Berchmans, Sr. Denis, Sr. Gertrude Joseph, Sr. Annemarie, Sr. Claude. (Standing, l to r) Fr. Edelenyi, Fr. Moreno, Fr. Zimmerman, Fr. Mr. Woods. They help us to broaden our horizons by instructing us in the cultures of other countries.

With the increased importance of science in our modern world, math is a vital course for both college prep and general students. Such courses as Algebra, Geometry, and Trigonometry, as well as general math, hold interest for many students.

Sr. Anne Marie shows Seniors N. Snyder and G. Patterson how to determine the angle from the log function.

"Geometry can be fun," claims Sr. St. Joseph to her many Geometry classes. These students identify terms by playing "Geo." It's like Bingo but a real tester. Try it!

Mathematics is made interesting and useful by our dedicated teachers. Seated are Sr. Bartholomew, Sr. St. Joseph, Sr. Anne Marie, Fr. Delaney, and Mr. Meyer. Standing are Mr. Wood, and Sr. Erentrude.

Our extensive library is under the capable direction of Sr. Paulette. She is assisted by L. Boone and N. Konoske as M. Macke checks out a book.

Able assistant librarians S. Geary, N. Konoske, J. Beu, and P. Hoban learn to use the card catalogue and reference section.

The Jewelry group taught by Mr. Lugo keeps (l to r) R. Heroux, A. Berryman, L. Gaspar, R. Bonilla, and K. Euge quite busy.

Sr. Emilene instructs P. Adelman, C. schaefer, and J. Criegham in the proper method of laying a pattern. K. O'Connell, B. Lupo and M. Joyce look on.

Mr. Lugo illustrates the proper functioning of the lathe to R. Novak.

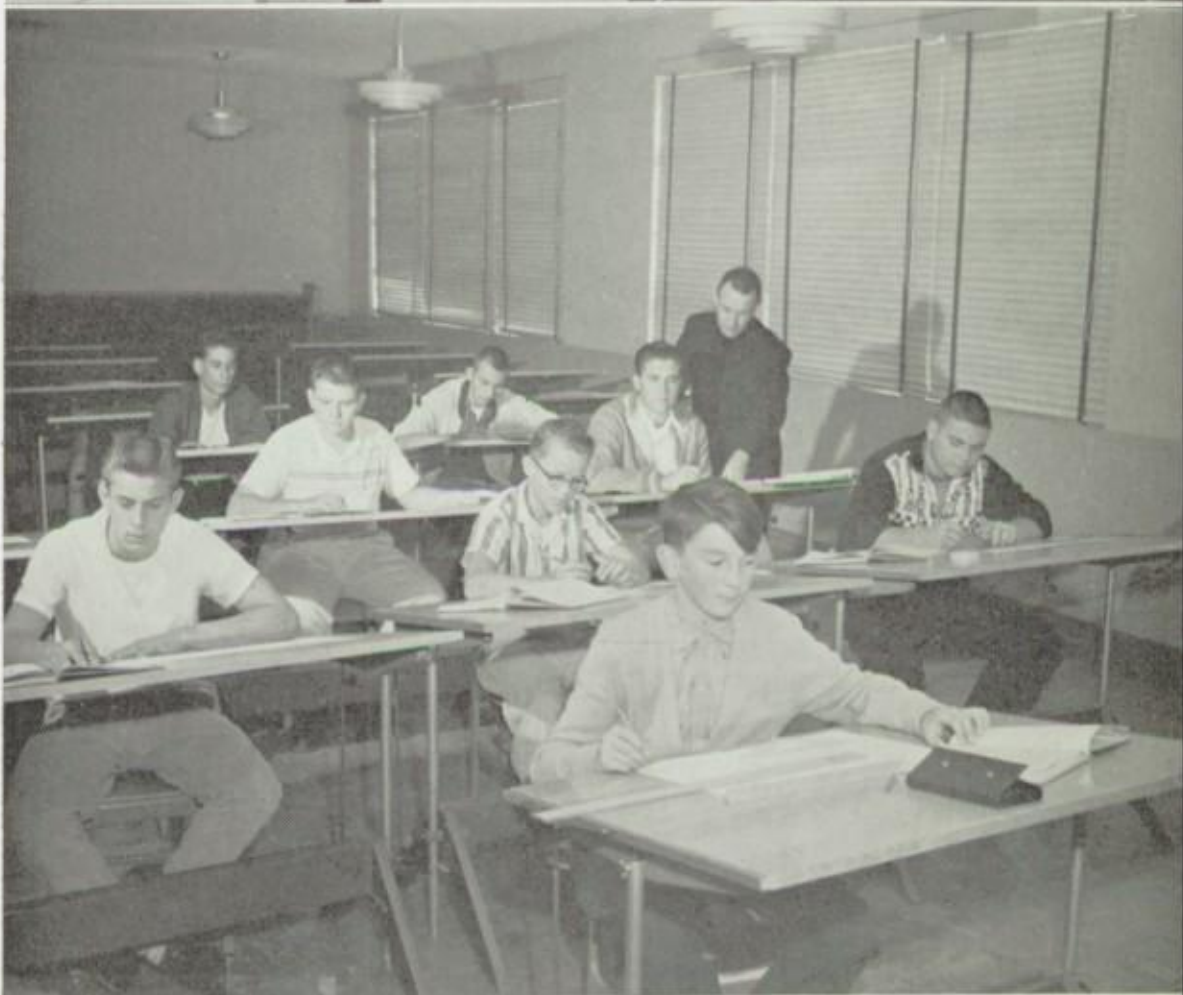

The Foods Class is engrossed with the preparation of a hearty meal. Sr. Jeannette looks on approvingly.

"It's just as simple as it looks!" says Fr. Cranham to the members of the Mechanical Drawing Class as he points to a "point of interest" for F. McPhearson, L. Benofy, T. Young, B. Mercer, H. Budds, D. Welch, R. Tessiere, and L. Custer seem to agree.

A little recreation in gym class is a welcome note after the long hours in the classroom. Our two fine girls' physical education teachers, Mrs. Caldero and Mrs. Lefevbre, strive to give us this needed recreation.

The freshman girls' volleyball team practiced long and hard to show their school spirit.

This ceaseless guide,
our religion,

At Thanksgiving, many families were fed by these willing distributors of donations made in the various homerooms.

Santa Claus was made real through the generosity of our student body: the girls' sodality delivered clothes, the boys' sodality mended old toys and delivered them to needy children.

One of the many corporal works of mercy is help of the sick. These girls assist Rancho patients to Mass and other services. They also read to some and help with hair-dressing, manicuring, etc.

The Sodality believes that "A Rosary a day will pave Heaven's highway!" and so they lead the student body in its recital during October, Lent, and May.

The Sodality of Our Lady is represented by three branches at Pius X: the Boys' Sodality, the Senior Girls' Sodality and the Freshman Girls' Sodality. All of them, however, share a common, three-fold purpose: to foster devotion to their patron, Our Blessed Mother; personal sanctification; and the sanctification of others.

Sodality officers and their group seem rather pleased with the discussion in progress.

Members of the Seniority Sodality spend some of their free time counting student body donations for the missions.

Queen Barbara Pharis

The social season at Piux X is initiated by the Homecoming festivities in November. Excitement runs high as attractive and popular Senior girls vie for the title of Queen. At Friday night's football game, the lucky winner is announced. The event is climaxed by the big dance on Saturday night. This year's "Star-Dust Dream" was held at South Gate Civic Auditorium.

Sister Therese Martin, Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Ctibor discuss plans for the upcoming productions of the Music Department.

Mr. Ctibor gives the band last-minute pointers as they rehearse for the Christmas program. (Below) the Chorus await their signal to "Come, All Ye Faithful."

The males of the student body were privileged to attend a musical assembly at which the glee clubs of Don Bosco, Loyola and our own (pictured here) performed.

The rehearsals for the "Desert Song" were often tedious, but the impact of even the opening scene was reward enough for these efforts. "Margot and the girls," together with the chorus, sang as this lonely Arab waited beyond the footlights for his band.

The Sheik looked happy throughout the play—who wouldn't be, with such a harem?

B. Frascella failed to flee the Arabs dressed as a woman, but he did succeed on the back of "Mr. Big Ears," hailed as the star of the show. The unmasking of Red Shadow, followed by a resounding chorus of the "Desert Song", climaxed the play with the rafters ringing applause. The End.

PIUS X SHOW

US THE WAY

DOORS

Doors! Twelve long years have the graduates of '58 passed through doors — doors of learning, doors of pleasure, doors of experience and doors of prayer.

'Twas in 1954 that these doors opened wide to welcome eager freshmen bent upon receiving a worthwhile, Catholic education. Many times since have they gone and come, always finding the doors open, always finding an opportunity to pursue the finer things religiously, culturally, and scholastically.

The key to these doors have been held by Father Sharpe, principal, friend and director. Under his leadership the doors were labeled "security." Another key, a master one, has been kept for any emergency in the competent hands of Father Cranham, the assistant principal, and that one is labeled "understanding." There are other keys and other doors, each a secret entrance to the pursuit of those things that make Pius X so great, and these are guided by the faculty.

On June 1, 1958 the doors will close on the Class of '58 but through their crystal clearness there will always be a "welcome" sign and as the graduate passes by he may see within and know that behind these doors are the "things wrought of God."

Credit to Whom Credit is Due

In the year of Our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-eight, it became apparent to the Tiara Staff that there was a great deal of student talent and capability going generally unrecognized around this campus. So we decided to bring some of the talent out into the open where you all may share in the progress and deeds of our PIUS TENTH TEENS. We have the intellectuals with us always, thank God for them, and among them this year, we find a goodly mixture: Mr. Malley who made two years of "A" average in Latin, who won the Math and Science Area award from the Bank of America; who was accepted at M.I.T., who won second place in the science symposium at I.H.C.; Joan Wright who has a Latin "B" average for four years; Martin Merlo who also has a Latin "B" average for four years; M. J. Zimmerman who won a scholarship to I.H.C., and who received the Social Studies and Foreign Language award from the Bank of America; B. Policy who has the Fine Arts award; J. Plambeck the Business award; B. Hansinger who receives the Vocational Arts award; J. Floeck — Mathematics, and M. Joyce the Practical Arts award; B. Frascella who received the English award, as well as placing in the Voice of Democracy and Lions Club Contests; Carmel Ruggiero who won a scholarship to I.H.C.; B. Lupo who gets special mention for proficiency in the speaking and the writing of Spanish; F. Mullin who placed second in the Elks Poetry contest; B. Pharis for her hard work with the drill team; H. Janee who placed first in the Modern Language Contest for an eight-minute speech in Latin; L. Benofy an outstanding geometrician, and R. Beingessner and C. Pankake outstanding English scholars; D. Christenson and Tracy Farwell budding literary stylists; T. Panciera and J. Grantham for outstanding work in art; K. Fromdahl and S. Brown for generous cooperation shown throughout their high school days, especially in the cafeteria; B. Hale, who has spent many hours in the production of this book. J. Quartucci, who is the general all-round athlete and yet maintains an "A" average. J. Janssen for her outstanding generosity and J. Quantrill, S. Burke, and T. Harvey who are capable engineers back stage.

We Owe Our Thanks

To James Francis Cardinal McIntyre for his valiant support of our school which makes this book possible, we owe our thanks;

To Father Joseph Sharpe, principal, friend and guide, for his patience and assistance, we owe our thanks;

To all the members of the faculty for their patience in putting up with disturbed classes and schedule, we owe our thanks;

To the members of the staff for very loyal support and harr work, we owe much thanks;

To the L.A. Engraving Company, especially, and to Mr. Jack Canicott in particular, for putting up with errors, late copy, and work added to their heavy burden, we owe our thanks;

To the S.K. Smith Cover Company for this lovely cover on our book, we owe our thanks;

To Alfred and Fabris Studios for the work on the photographs by their entire crew, but by Pete, especially, and for the use of one of their press cameras for the use of our student photographers, we owe much thanks;

To you, the student body, for your help in giving of your interest in the progress of the Tiara, for your many inquiries as to its make up, and your general "getting under our feet" because you are interested and anxious to see it, we owe you a great deal of thanks.

Glenn,
It's been a black knowing you this year. I hope you always have fun
good. Love 'n' peace
as always

Glenn,
I hope that next year I get to know you better. After all,
I was last year
and in all the years
to come.
See you next year!

Dear Gloria,

It's been fun
knowing you + being in homeroom with you!!!
and I really mean it!!!
I hope I see you again next year + stay as crazy as you are now.

Sincerely,

Virgie Dominguez

Dear Gloria,
It's been a lot of kicks and laughter being with you in homeroom.
I probably won't see you again but I hope you stay as crazy as you are. Good Luck

Dear Mona:

This is going to be a short
one. Well here we are in another year. It's finally coming to an end.

I thought it would never get here & now that it has I feel a little sad. I guess I'll really feel bad next year when I graduate cause I'll miss school & all the kids.

You'd better be a good girl next year cause
I hear Santa Clause is not going give any presents to bad girls so watch those biological Terms during the summer. Well there playing my song now so if this letter gets a little mushy you'll know why. Hope we can all get together this summer it will really be a ball specially now that we all got a drivers license. Kid - o I think You really have the cutest burmudas on, there just "precious"!
Kid I hope you & Joe get together this summer that is if you want to. Well I guess I'd better shut up now cause this pen might not last & besides I talk so much during the day I can't think of anything else to say!!!

Loads of Love & Luck now & forever!

Love
Sandi O'ameba Joe.
"58"

Dear!!!
 Aint that the Coes?? Well I had to shovel off so fast of luck always sweetie and remember I'll always be around if you need me for anything
 Boy know Precious
 "Bookie" 59
 P.S. Hope we can go somewhere this summer and have just piles & piles of CoCo-Nuts for little friends (Hey!!) Gladia Do you still love me) See you this summer
 Good bless you little Fat body!!!

What a roar this year has been with the "Boobs". We have really had a great time. I hope we have more fun next year.

Lots of luck
Linda Brooks
(Boob)

Gloria,
I'll say this in secret "Boob"! All kidding aside, I really consider you as one of my best friends. I hope I'm the same in your book. I hope that next year we can be real close and go a lot of places together. Good Luck in everything you may do. I hope you find some guy that is deserving of you!
Love ya Bushy Babe,
Linda

Hi Gloria,
It's really been fun going places etc. with you and the BABES (Ah! Boobs Bushes)
I hope we can all run around together next year too!
Good Luck and be good!
Love
Marianne

Some more?
Yes, your right its your lil' ol' Bob a Zeece, back again. I really don't know what else to say, but we are glad to have you as a member of the Boob family and I hope that during the summer and for many more years to come, we will always have a mess of fun. Sharp-----

I hope nothing ever happens to make any of us enemies 'cause we get along too good! I think the world of you, Gloria, and I know that if I ever feel like letting off steam I can always go to "My Favorite Shoulder"
As I've said before, I hope that someday →

you will find someone that knows ^{when} something is really good. This is something I hope and pray for all the time. You never can tell, though, maybe will come to his senses! I hope so!! I guess I better shut my keep! I've said enough.

To Gloria,
 a real cute "Bookie"
 I've had loads of fun
 knowing you this year & hope we can all get together again next year.
 Love
 Pat & 2 young

Gloria,
 I want to wish you the best of luck in your senior year. You are a real sweet and popular girl.
 Darryl Harrison

Gloria, I really have been a lot of fun being in your classes this year. You have a great personality and will go a long like way. I will make you that make pins so great. We really had a blast at our picnic. I hope that we will have some classes together again next year. Lots of luck in your senior
 year.
 Friend
 Betty

J. Gloria
 a "bookie" of course. It has been a lot of fun going with you guys everywhere. Guess the clock?
 I had better be hearing from you ! Gabbie this summer is words with be spoken! Near?

Love you.
